Military Saves Week (MSW) is an annual opportunity for installations and organizations to promote good savings behavior and a chance for service members and their families to assess their own saving status. MSW is a worldwide financial readiness celebration that kicks off the campaign year!

Since 2007, more than 300,000 (and counting) service members and their family members have taken the Military Saves pledge to save money, reduce debt and build wealth. Every year, hundreds of installations and organizations from all over the world participate in MSW by hosting events that promote savings and financial readiness. Here are some highlights from January–March 2018.

PLEDGE COUNT

25,911

PROMO VIDEO

Military Saves launched its MSW promotion video, produced by USAA Educational Foundation.
AFFILIATE SUPPORT

Military-affiliated programs, publications and government agencies got in on the fun by supporting Military Saves Week on both Facebook and Twitter.

“I have paid off over $15,000 of my debt and went from living paycheck to paycheck and having no funds in my savings account to having $25,000! I also started my Thrift Savings Plan account and enjoy watching my balance grow. I’m extremely grateful to my Army Community Service financial counselor and Military Saves for assisting me in getting on the right path for financial success!”
