MILITARY SAVES INDUCTED INTO DOD'S MILITARY SPOUSE EMPLOYMENT PARTNERSHIP

Washington, D.C. – On December 9th, 2020, Military Saves will join the Department of Defense's Military Spouse Employment Partnership in a virtual ceremony. Military Saves joins 85 new partners to MSEP – bringing the number of employers to 500.

“We’re honored to be a part of the Military Spouse Employment Partnership. As a staff of all military spouses, we know from experience that veterans and military families face challenges when it comes to gaining employment, and we also know that they have a lot to offer employers,” said Angela Caban, Director, at Military Saves.

MSEP connects military spouses with hundreds of partner employers who commit to recruit, hire, promote and retain military spouses. Since its inception in 2011, MSEP employers have hired more than 175,000 military spouses.

“The work of Military Saves is to encourage the military community to save, as we believe that financial readiness is mission readiness. If veterans and military families are facing employment challenges, they will not be in the position to save effectively,” adds Caban.

For those interested in viewing Military Saves’ induction into the partnership, the Defense Department will live stream the opening session on the Military OneSource Facebook page and individual induction ceremonies will be livestreamed on the Spouse Education and Career Opportunities Facebook page at 1 p.m., 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. EST.

About Spouse Education and Career Opportunities

The MSEP initiative is part of DOD’s broader Spouse Education and Career Opportunities program. The department established the SECO program to provide education and career guidance to military spouses worldwide, offering free, comprehensive resources and tools related to career exploration, education, training and licensing, employment readiness and career connections. This program also offers free career coaching services six days a week.

About Military Saves

Military Saves is coordinated by the nonprofit Consumer Federation of America and is an initiative of America Saves. The program is a participant in the Department of Defense's Financial Readiness Network. Military Saves is a research-based campaign that uses the principles of social marketing and behavioral economics to motivate, support, and encourage the entire military community, including veterans, to save money and build wealth by taking the Military Saves Pledge.
